U. S. Ship "Pawnee."

On Sunday last intelligence was received by the Hon. Mahlon Chance, United States Consul at this port, that the above-named vessel was lying near Berry Islands in an exposed position, and required assistance. Acting with his usual promptness, the Consul waited upon the Governor, and H. M. S. Philomel, then lying in port, was despatched to the assistance of the Pawnee. The Pawnee, lately a steamship, has had her engines removed, and was proceeding under sail to Key West to be there used as a Hospital Ship. She left Hampton Roads on the 7th inst. and encountered heavy weather while crossing the Gulf. Made Abaco Light on the 20th, reached Berry Islands and there anchored to wait for a favorable wind. The commander considering his position dangerous one should a northerly wind come on, wrote to the Consul, and the Philomel went down. Upon reaching her, the Philomel took her in tow and towed her beyond Little Stirrups Cay Light and left her to proceed across the Banks towards her destination.

The Commander and Officers of the Pawnee considering themselves under very great obligations to the Governor, the Consul, and the Officers of H. M. S. Philomel, expressed their thanks for the assistance so kindly and promptly rendered to them.—Nassau Times.
